

Sept 2009

Bring your antiques and collectables and have them appraised. The Antiques Roadshow will be in the cabin offering verbal appraisals for $5 per item with a three item limit, (no jewelry please). All funds will be donated to Davidson's Fort Historic Park right here in Old Fort.

We have a great lineup of food vendors. Mr. Gene's Catering will be there serving hot-dogs, BBQ, Fish, Lemonade and Chicken. Okie Dokies Smokehouse will be serving BBQ, Ribs, Sausage, Hot Dogs and Nachos Barracuda Kettle Korn serving kettle corn, shaved ice and lemonade. Rocky River Sandwich Company serving polish sausage, Philly cheese steak, bloomin onions, funnel cakes, turkey legs and butterfly fries. Keith Hall will also be there serving his funnel cakes, hot dogs and burgers.

Oktoberfest Vendors

We won't be able to list all the vendors but here is a sampling; Pony Pals Pony Rides, P&J Crafts, Mountain Candles, Gail Vanderweit, Annette's Crafts, Likwish Studio, The New Beginning Church, Marianne Peterson, Useful Plants Nursery, Carolina Woodcrafters, Shelley's Family Jewels, Sarcats Greeting Cards and Face Painting, The Nut Nook, Joyce Lewis Foot Care, and more to come. The opening ceremonies will be conducted by the Old Fort Elementary school music class playing the dulcimers and singing. Senator Joe Sam Queen will be the Master of Ceremonies. The Old Fort Chamber of Commerce invites all their members to bring information about their company to display at the Gazebo. Members are encouraged to volunteer some time to help at Oktoberfest. Please circulate this newsletter among your customers and employees.
